Next Sunday: Remembrance Sunday

Next Sunday is Remembrance Sunday. Due to the COVID restrictions we are not able to gather at the War Memorials as we would usually do. We are encouraging people to gather at 11am on Sunday 8 November at their garden gates, front doors or windows to observe the two minutes silence. Before that, from 10.30am, there will be a videoed Act of Remembrance streamed on our Facebook page. A written version of this will be sent out with next week's newsletter. At 11.15am there will be a United Service of Remembrance on Zoom:

The 100 club is coming back ...!

You might have thought it was all over, but the 100 club will be restarting in January!

A big thank you to Tony Caunt who is taking over at the helm!

The closer we can get to 100 numbers sold, the better it will be.

So now is the time to get some numbers if you've not had one before and to renew your number if you would like to keep it. Or if your number hasn't ever come up then perhaps this is the moment to change it for a luckier one!!

It is just £24 a year for each number. You will be helping to raise funds for the churches and will also be in with a chance to win excellent cash prizes each month and each year. If you would like to be part of it, then contact Tony on 01535 273709.

You can organise payment electronically:

Account Name: PCC of St Saviours Harden and St Matthew Wilsden 100 Club

Leo Maitland is top in the football!

The Purple Ribbons for All Souls are up at all our churches this weekend:

explanation too. If you're late you can still watch on replay too.

Generosity:

We are really grateful to all those who continue to support the church financially. If you find that you have a little extra income and would be able to increase your giving at this time it would help our financial situation enormously.

Prayers for the week beginning Sunday 1st November

Because of print deadlines this prayer diary cannot respond quickly to breaking news. In addition to the suggested topics, please keep in prayer national and international events as you learn of them.

Sun	01-Nov	Give thanks for saints of old and pray that we may find inspiration in their lives and examples.
Mon	02-Nov	Hold in prayerful remembrance those you have loved and who no longer share our earthly life. Pray for those who have lost family or friends during the past year.
Tue	03-Nov	Pray for our mission partner Awais and for people in Seacroft who are the focus of her work, remembering at this time those who have lost loved ones.
Wed	04-Nov	While it is not possible for the Well Being Cafe to meet, pray for those who benefitted from it and that their carers, family or professional, can still find ways to support them.
Thu	05-Nov	Pray for children at our village schools and for staff who are working hard to provide a safe and happy environment.
Fri	06-Nov	Pray for national and local political leaders and the specialists who advise them, and for responsible behaviour throughout the country to help reduce the risk of infection.
Sat	07-Nov	Pray for hospitality businesses in our villages as wintry weather makes it harder for them to provide safe spaces for people to meet.
